SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

Mr. Green congratulated the High School Robotics Team and their coach Mr. Moskal for placing 2nd in the weekend's robotics competition. They missed going to the finals by 19 points. They walked away with the General Motors distinction award for completing four out of four tasks with their robot. March Careness begins tomorrow at the high school where the Hot Spot is accepting donations of canned goods, clothing and toiletries to support our own pantry and local pantries across Macomb County. Juniors will be taking the PSAT Wednesday. Tryouts for baseball, softball, boys and girls track are this week. Good luck to all. Congratulations to Kevin Steinhebel for being selected the CHS Macomb County All-Academic student. This Thursday is the girls and boys basketball banquet at 6:00 in the HS cafeteria. Mr. Green introduced Mrs. Cargill to present an award.

PRESENTATIONS

Mrs. Cargill introduced high school student Alaysa Steen who nominated Ms. Julie Shier for the Noble Educator of Distinction award. Alaysa read all of the reasons she nominated Ms. Shier. Mrs. Cargill presented Ms. Shier with the award.
